

News:

7 July 2017, R K Studios, Mumbai:

A 48 year old man was found dead at R K studios on Saturday. The man was later identified as Dinanath Krishnan, the director of famous T.V. series Game of Shinigamis. The incident has come into limelight following the 4 episode leak scenario that happened just yesterday leading to a huge loss to producers. The police arrived at the scene soon after the body was discovered by Krishnan's secretary. This event has caused a tumult in the television industry whereas the cause of death is still uncertain.

Characters of the case:

1. Dinanath Krishnan:

A 48-year-old famous director who has been associated with a number of successful TV series. A laconic, decorous personality Dinanath was revered in the Television industry. Leading to his success in previous TV shows, he ventured to direct Games of Shingamis along with Anup Yagimi as his assisting director. He was the one who used to have final copies of episodes of Games of Shingamis. Lately, he was stressed and something was worrying him, some suggest that it was due to continuous pursuit by the producer of Western Yug to leave Games of Shingamis and join the Western Yug cast as the main director. His wife is no more but he has a daughter named Karishma.

2. Anup Yagimi:

30-year-old Yagimi worked with Dinanath as an assisting director in many of his successful projects. Many in the television industry believed that the real reason behind the success of Dinanath was due to Yagimi, but he never got the credit for his work. Yagimi is a gluttonous guy who wants to make it big in the television industry. Recently, Yagimi and Dinanath were in the news as a verbal conflict led to delay in airing of an episode of Game of Yagimi. Yagimi has a soft corner for Karishma and rumors even suggest that they were having an affair.

3. Ismail Khan:

Ismail Khan is a 50-year-old businessman and also producer of Western Yug. He is a chainsmoker. He is an arrogant and short-tempered person. He had some background with the underworld. Western Yug despite being critically acclaimed and vowed show is facing low TRPs due to Games of Shingamis. Ismail Khan has risked everything on this show and will go bankrupt if this show fails to succeed. He had tried to bribe Dinanath and had also given death threats so as to convince him to leak the entire season and to ruin the TRPs of the show. Some extortion cases are still going on against him in the court.

4. Karishma Krishnan:

She is a 24-year-old beautiful looking daughter of Dinanath. She has recently returned to India after completing her masters in America. She is raised by a single parent and much pampered hence, as a result, she is stubborn and can go to any extent to get whatever she wants. Her relationship with her father was not smooth at all and the latest rumors of her having an affair with Anup took a turn for worse. She recently came to know from her lawyer that Dinanath had decided to donate seventy-five percent of his property to charity after his death and signing for this will would take place on 8th July, which had angered Karishma as she wanted all of her father's property and nothing less. She asked her father regarding the same to get the confirmation of the news. On hearing that the news was no false, Karishma's impudence went out her bounds. She spoke some harsh words to her father and her father even slapped her in the powwow.

5. Jaswinder Kaur:

He is a 20-year-old man who plays the lead role in Games of Shingamis. He was the one of the very few who had witnessed Dinanath and Anup quarrels.

6. Rahul Shetty:

He is a 50-year-old secretary of Dinanath. He is the one who had reported the murder of Dinanath. He is rumored to be in contact with Ismail Khan.

7. Suryakant Reddy:

He is a 45-year-old producer of Games of Shingamis. After the death of Dinanath, he has appointed Anup to fill Dinanath's shoes.

8. Ramsingh Sharma:

He is a 37-year-old man who works as a butler at Dinanath's residence. He had seen Anup visiting Dinanath's home in the absence of Dinanath on a number of occasions.